

“Therapy”

There's Carol and Lana - occasionally Eve
They do things to your body - that are hard to believe

Techniques they use - are really a scream
Carol explains it - she's the Analogy Queen

Twisted, contorted - you feel like a clown
You're put into positions - turned upside down

Twisted, contorted - pulled by your head
They jump on your body - your face turns bright red

Twisted, contorted - still don't understand
They're trying to cure you - it's all done by hand

Twisted, contorted - squashed like a bug
Treatment is over - Lana gives me my hug

Slouching and slumping - I walk that way
Sitting or sleeping - that's how I stay

When totally stretched out - the way that I should Everything will be better - that'll be good

Some day when it's over - and finally cured
No more twisting, contorting - I give you my word

Give me a discharge - say that I'm well
If that ever happens - I'll be happy as Hell

Raymond Hartmann, February 2006